CFA Level 1: Question Bank Read Online

Our question bank has been developed by certified CFA charterholders with first-hand experience of the exam. Our instructors know what it takes to pass. Each question is repeatedly validated to ensure you get the most out of the platform. At AnalystPrep, we adopt the exact question structure as the actual exam. The distracters agree grammatically with the stem.

Our question bank is divided into specific topics to help you attain an all-round understanding of the curriculum. Every question is accompanied by a detailed solution. Join the 20, candidates who register yearly for our free resources available only on our platform.

The Level I CFA exam consists of 10 topics covering a broad range of skills in a large volume of material. Testing your knowledge in each specific area by using the practice questions helps you understand where your strengths and weaknesses are. You can track your performance over time and monitor your progress with our FREE performance tracking tool.

Performance tracking is part of our complete set of analytics tools that gives you invaluable insights into your performance, including the ability to compare your result with more than 20, users worldwide. Adjust your study plan according to the given results and improve your performance by revising the topics that you need to master. Efficient studying begins with knowing which topics you need to put more effort into so as to maximize your chances of passing.

George Mendes is considering an employment offer made by DR Associates, an investment bank. Should Mendes accept the offer, he will be responsible for supervising twenty portfolio managers. C decline the offer in writing until the firm adopts reasonable procedures to allow the exercise of his supervisory responsibilities. Although the front-running client trades constitutes a violation of the CFA Institute Standards of Professional Conduct, this does not mean that Mendes cannot discharge his supervisory responsibilities.

His best course of action would be to accept the position offered and implement adequate compliance procedures. Option C is incorrect. Since Mendes will be able to discharge his supervisory responsibilities despite front-running by employees, declining supervisory responsibilities in writing is not a recommended course of action.

Option A is incorrect. Once a supervisor learns that an employee has violated the Code and Standards, the supervisor should promptly initiate an assessment to determine the extent of the wrongdoing.

An investment management firm has been in existence for eight years. To comply with the GIPS standards, the firm is initially required to present a GIPS-compliant performance track record of five years and present an additional year of performance each year going forward, building up to a minimum of 10 years of GIPS-compliant performance.

Which one will you choose? Galactic Hyper is a chain of hypermarkets which sells most of its products for cash, which is why its days of sales outstanding are as low as 22 days. Bruce Craig is in the business of trading steel in Chicago, which he inherited from his father one month ago.

His financial adviser notes the following aspects of his situation. However, his age factor, time horizon and investment goal suggest a high willingness to take risk. B An efficient capital market reflects all of the information about its securities, including risk. Therefore, option A is the least likely option, as stated in the question. Assuming the following sequence of spot rates, the price of the bond is closest to:

Each package includes 5 ask-a-tutor questions via our live chat. Most packages come with month access. You guys are the best. But with the up-to-date study material, there is little to worry about. The Premium package is cheaper and the questions are well answered and explained.

The question bank has a wide range of examinable questions extracted from across the whole syllabus. Thank you so much for helping me pass my first CFA exam. Analytics help us understand how the site is used, and which pages are the most popular. Read the Privacy Policy to learn how this information is used. To help you prepare for the exam, we offer different types of practice, including practice questions and a mock exam, with our Learning Ecosystem. As you work your way through the curriculum, we recommend pausing to answer practice questions, assessing your level of confidence and accuracy along the way.

Then, in advance of the exam, take a mock exam, which mimics the exam-day experience as closely as possible. Registered candidates: Access your mock exams and practice questions through the Learning Ecosystem login required. After taking the adaptive placement test to determine the most critical areas for you to focus your studies, use the practice questions within each topic to confirm your understanding based on the study session.

Practice questions are based on lessons in the curriculum to help you evaluate your topic-level strengths and weaknesses. All questions are rooted in the current curriculum, and they are in the same format as the questions on the actual exam level you are registered for.

You will receive in-time feedback on your answers, including detailed explanations for the correct answer. Mock exams are designed to replicate the timing and structure of the exam.
