

Terms courses

If cancellation takes place within five (5) business days from the date of training, 25% of the training costs will be charged. If cancellation takes place within one (1) business day from the date of training, 50% of the training cost is charged. If no cancellation has been made, 100% of the training cost will be charged. Hewall Safety reserves the right to cancel scheduled training due to an instructor's illness. In case of cancelled training from Hewall Safety, booking ceases to be binding and Hewall Safety will in this case provide a new training date.

In case of a rebooking within one (1) working day from the date of training, a rebooking fee of 200 SEK ex. VAT will be charged.

Travel and accommodation expenses will be charged on courses not carried out in Hewall Safety training facility, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

If the number of students exceeds the booked amount, Hewall Safety has the right to correct the amount of students to the booked amount or charge full training fee for each excess student.
