

Globally inspired squeezable condiment sauces, your liquid spice rack

Consumer palates are changing and heat is the new normal. Our new squeeze bottle condiment sauces are outselling conventional hot sauces four to one.

So many health-conscious consumers are looking for a way to add heat and flavor to a lean protein or plant-based protein and vegetables. They are craving unique and elevated experiences, this shift fuels consumer appetites for exotic and international flavors.

Our innovative condiment sauces address this and more by having a globally inspired approach to flavor. Sauces are more savory and satisfying than dry spices and we offer consumers this alternative for the foods they love. We call it the liquid spice rack.
